JOINT PROPOSED SCHEDULE FOR BI-WEEKLY STATUS CONFERENCES

Pursuant to Magistrate Judge Orenstein's September 27, 2017 Order, the Plaintiffs and Defendants in Batalla Vidal v. Trump and New York v. Trump, who have conferred, jointly and respectfully request the following schedule for bi-weekly status conferences to address any outstanding discovery disputes. Beginning on Wednesday, October 11, 2017, the parties request that such status conferences be held every other Wednesday between 1:00 PM and 4:00 PM. To accommodate the Thanksgiving holiday, the parties request that the conference that would have been held on Wednesday, November 22, 2017 be rescheduled to Wednesday, November 29, 2017.

As such, the parties respectfully request that conferences be held on the afternoons of Wednesday, October 11, 2017; Wednesday, October 25, 2017; Wednesday, November 8, 2017; Wednesday, November 29, 2017; and Wednesday, December 13, 2017. Attorneys representing the Plaintiff States of Massachusetts and Washington in New York v. Trump respectfully request permission of the Court to participate telephonically in all status conferences pertaining to discovery. The other parties will seek permission to participate telephonically, if necessary, on as-needed basis.

To the extent any particular status conference proves to be unnecessary, the parties will meet and confer and promptly notify the Court, and request that the status conference be removed from the Court's calendar.

Dated: September 29, 2017
New Haven, Connecticut

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Michael J. Wishnie
